

GOLDEN WEDDING.

"J. B. H." Tells of a Happy Event at Mayslick.

Mr. and Mrs. Eneas Myall Celebrate the Fiftieth Anniversary of Their Marriage.

The close of the fiftieth year of married life brings round the appropriate time for the golden wedding which Mr. and Mrs. Eneas Myall duly celebrated at their spacious home, "Windsor," overlooking the antique village of Mayslick, on Saturday, January 27th, 1894. At the appointed hour, 1. p. m., the invited guests began to gather and soon the reception room was filled with citizens and their wives and children, who were anxious to show by their presence the esteem and affection they had for the veteran deacon and his good wife.

The golden wedding was an impressive affair—a pleasant means of social reunion among the relatives and friends of both husband and wife.

All of the children of Mr. and Mrs. Myall, with one exception, were present. The children that sat round the dinner table, graced by the venerable couple in the seats of honor, were Mrs. J. M. Walker, Mrs. Mary Riley, Miss Ann and Miss Myra Myall, William and Ben J. Myall. Among the other relatives present were Mr. and Mrs. Jonas Myall, Mayslick; Mrs. Jonathan Myall, Hutchison, Ky.; Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Myall, Paris, Ky.; Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Myall, Mayslick; Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Walker, Flemingsburg; Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Johnson, Muir, Ky.; Mrs. Wm. Myall and daughter, Paris; Miss Lula Myall, Mayslick; Mrs. Emma Jackson, Mayslick; Mr. and Mrs. Johnson, Millersburg.

The ceremony was not repeated as is usual on such occasions but their beloved pastor, Elder Tindler, gave a congratulatory address of much beauty and appropriateness, after which congratulations followed by friends and relatives.

The occasion has become a memorable event in the life of the couple, recalling most vividly the happy day in the long distant past which brought to each a new existence and changed the whole current of their lives.

After congratulations upon their half century of married life, and wishes for many additional years of wedded bliss, the BULLETIN reporter expressed the hope that they might live to celebrate their diamond wedding, and he be there to see! And then the party led by the bride and groom repaired to the banquet hall, which presented a picture long to be remembered by those present. But three of the party who witnessed the nuptials of '44 survive, viz: "Squire Hiram Dye, S. A. Clift and Mrs. E. Hawkins. The remainder have gone to their final rest.

The Myall home has been blessed with eight children, seven living, one dead; three sons and five daughters, four married, three single; grandchildren, seventeen living, four dead; great-grandchildren, two, both living.

Eneas Myall is an Englishman by birth—born September 24, 1819, in Dorsetshire, old England; a Kentuckian by adoption; was originally a Presbyterian, but joined the Christian Church and was baptized by the late R. C. Ricketts in '46. Full forty years he has been an officer of the Christian Church at Mayslick, serving most acceptably.

Miss Sallie Ellis, the bride of '44, a model Kentucky housewife, was born in Nicholas County October 5th, 1817, and joined the Christian Church under the preaching of John T. Johnson and John A. Gano and was baptized by the former. She has been a true helpmeet to her industrious husband in his home labors, in which she always took a vital interest and with him bore a part. Pause and think of it! Fifty years of preparing breakfast, dinner and supper, 1,095 meals per annum, and in fifty years 54,750. Blessings on these dear old mothers, who fifty years ago heard but little music but the rock, rock, rock of the cradle and the whirl of the spinning wheel.

As Talmage says, "If any persons ever fitted appropriately into a good, easy comfortable heaven, they were these folks, and they got there," and we add, will get there.

The bride and groom of '44 and '94, climbed the hill together, and many a festive and happy day they had with one another; they gradually ascended from the bottom to the top-peak of the ladder, from indigence to affluence, from hardship to independence, and now in the bright afternoon of their history they have all that should accompany advanced age—love, honor and troops of friends, and an attractive home.

A variety of lovely bridal gifts were laid on the table of Mrs. Myall—twice a bride—among which were observed a number of exquisite gifts from relatives in California and old England, vying in beauty with those from Kentucky friends. Mrs. Dr. Davis, Mrs. James Peed and

Mrs. McClelland of Lexington were the patronesses of the occasion and acquitted themselves with much dignity and grace. Among the guests present were: Mr. and Mrs. Joe Laytham, Elder Tindler and wife, Elder Hibbs and wife, Mrs. Alice D. Orr, Flemingsburg, Mrs. Byron McClelland, Lexington, Mrs. James Peed, Mrs. Dr. M. H. Davis, Dr. H. L. Parry, Mr. and Mrs. Alex. Duke and Mr. C. B. Blake, Lebanon, O.

At the table of the marriage feast the guests standing (according to the English style), Rev. Hibbs added this blessing, "The Lord mercifully with His favor look upon this marriage anniversary day, and fill this devoted couple with all spiritual benediction and grace; that they may continue to live together in this life, that in the world to come they may have life everlasting."
